Somewhere down lover's lane
There's a mansion with fire inside
There's a garden with water so pure
And a room only angels can find

Calling all you strangers at my door
Calling only the angels who are looking for
A love that is honest and true
I'll set a place for you

It's my house and I'll show you around sometime
I'll take you all the way home
It's my house and I'll show you around sometime
I'll take you all the way home

No this isn't heartbreak hotel
Or somewhere to stay for the night
I've been watching you walking on by
One day I'll ask you inside

Calling all you strangers at my door
Calling only the angels who are looking for
A love that is honest and true
I'll set a place for you

It's my house and I'll show you around sometime
I'll take you all the way home
It's my house and I'll show you around sometime
To my secret unknown
It's my house and I'll show you around
I'll take you up and I'll take you down
It's my house and I'll show you around sometime
I'll take you all the way home

Calling all you strangers at my door
Calling only the angels who are looking for
A love that is honest and true
I'll set a place for you

It's my house and I'll show you around sometime
I'll take you all the way home
It's my house and I'll show you around sometime

To my secret unknown
It's my house and I'll show you around
I'll take you up and I'll take you down
It's my house and I'll show you around sometime
I'll take you all the way home
It's my house and I'll show you around

It's my house and I'll show you around sometime
