I love to ride all night in your new red porsche
Listen to the CD playing Nat King Cole
Messing up your pretty hair on the wishing hill
You've got the kind of heart that teases me and looks that kill

I know you're trying to impress me
With your witty charm and your big success
Is it so hard for you to see
That my love for you baby runs so much deeper yeah

I like to play in your shiny red world
Hold my hand tell me I'm your girl
I like all the places you take me to
But that's not why I'm in love with you
All these things really don't mean a thing
When you're lying baby in my arms

You're so caught up living in your polished world
You can have anything you desire, I'm not that kind of girl
What I want from you all your money can't buy
And if you take away your pretty toys that would be just fine

It's really starting to depress me
All the things you buy take up your time
Now you've got love that comes for free
What we have runs to much deeper yeah

I like to play in your shiny red world
Hold my hand tell me I'm your girl
I like all the places you take me to
But that's not why I'm in love with you
All these things really don't mean a thing
When you're lying baby in my arms

I like to play in your shiny red world
Hold my hand tell me I'm your girl
I like all the places you take me to
But that's not why I'm in love with you
All these things really don't mean a thing

When you're lying baby in my arms

I like to play in your shiny red world
Hold my hand tell me I'm your girl
I like all the places you take me to
But that's not why I'm in love with you
All these things really don't mean a thing
When you're lying baby in my arms

Shiny red world
We don't need a thing
From your shiny red world
We've got everything
Shiny red world
Love is all we need
