Nine footprints to evil hooves crack on petrified soil coming forth from the abyss lit by bonfires of sin

The quest for the grail of flies into the black sickness beyond exterminating angels where all sanctuary is denied

A female coven in heat and sexual pandemonium gave birth to utter blasphemy igniting an apocalypse

Satyrs reveal themselves born in the bowels of the beast and raised with inverted prayers a beast who is legion

Life flows through fang and claw our flag is made by sheer rage by the fangs of the soul-stealer from the skin of the risen dead

The blood of crow-headed dogs drips from the face of carnage and shapes a vile cosmology of lethal sinful magic
