"Ancient Slumber"

(inspired by the movie Evil Dead...) many creatures have come to pass ties creeps ever so slowly winds of past reflections of the future eternal rest no more

five closed minds provoking a force necronomicon, book bound in flesh source of all that is evil ancient slumber, now disturbed a welcomed rude awakening we come forth upon your summoning entering your body to control and possess our lost souls now live as one until we have you all waiting eagerly we have anticipated this eve to fulfill our wrath

one vacant soul still left to join us
he shall fall like all the others before him
