ritual mutilation
each worse than before
my reason to exist
blaspheme in endless gore perversion fueled in lust carried out at will dominating urge
through the eyes of the dead I kill
skinned alive
now left to rot
flesh consumed
with vomitous bloodclots
like a fulci nightmare
twisted and grotesque
take my hand
the touch of death
through the eyes of the dead I kill inhuman beast
regurgitating laughter
as I choke on bile
consumation of the dead
god forsaken necrophile
