conjure the spirits which may not choose to believe mystical visions start to appear motionless poised reaction controlled by internal fear beads of perspiration follow in hastened sequence I'm beyond the realms of tranquility distortion outrage cerebral dismal compelled by a joyous feeling of rage instigating homicidal craze implant seeds of hate creating images of horror powers which mankind refuses to condone or conceive beware what curiosity and ignorance breed for what is not believed may turn out to be your destiny
