If I could make my silence understood
We could be on the brink of something good
When I'll pretend to question what I already know
Tryn' to believe you'll miss me if I go

And I feel like I should sometimes I wish I could

I wanna close the window where I can scream out loud
And say all the wrong things that I'm saying now

And I feel like I should because you wish I would

But if I say I love you and if I lay it out
What if you say you love me to see how it sounds
But if you still can't hear me, what would it prove Just break the silence, I'm holding on to Cause I feel like I should because you wish I would

So if I say I love you and it I lay it out
What if you say you love me just 'cause you like the sound
But if you still can't hear me, what would it prove
Just break the silence, I'm holding on to

If I could make my silence understood
We could be on the brink of something good
