Even though that I've just met you
And we've only said hello
I can tell that you are special
Don't ask me how I know

It may sound strange but, to me it seems
You were always here
Living in my dreams

I can feel your love
It's in the air
Like rays of sunshine
Everywhere
Touching me forever and for always
Angel eyes they look at me
Telling me we're meant to be
Bringing back what I thought was gone
Everything changes
From now on

Do you believe in magic?
Do you believe in falling at first sight?
When love comes crashing in
I begin to realize
There's nowhere, for me to run tonight

I can feel your love
It's in the air
Like rays of sunshine
Everywhere
Touching me forever and for always
Angel eyes they look at me
Telling me we're meant to be
Bringing back what I thought was gone
Everything changes
From now on

I believe in tomorrow
Letting go of yesterday

I can feel your love
It's in the air

Like rays of sunshine
Everywhere
Touching me forever and for always
Angel eyes they look at me
Telling me we're meant to be
Bringing back what I thought was gone
Everything changes
From now on

Bringing back what I thought was gone
Everything changes
From now on

Everything changes
