My eyes refuse to see
You showing me the door
Then your smile whispers softly for more

So I'll stay Stay awhile
And I'll leave Leave when the sun sends me home
The night is ours and you are all I need

I'm MELTING into you

CHORUS:

When I look into your eyes
I feel like I'm MELTING into you
When I touch your skin I'm falling in
I'm MELTING into you

We walk beneath the sun
Write letters in the sand
But love is more than holding your hand

Lets run away Well find somewhere
Far away Well stand on the edge of the world Where only the stars will catch a glimpse of our first kiss
