When I wake up from the Loneliness that wakes me up
I think about their always smiling face
Which makes me smile without knowing

Like this another person leaves
And when another beautiful season arrives
With the sadness and longing for you which you left behind
I walk down this street again

Day after day as I live my life
I get teary after hearing his name
I can't hold it in, I can't laugh like this
I try calling his name again

With the scar he left on my heart
I'm trying to forget his name
Although I bite my lips trying to hold it in My love is only you

Day after day as I live my life
I get teary after hearing his name
I can't hold it in, I can't laugh like this
I try calling his name again

I live my life pretending nothing has happened
When I'm longing for love
With the hurt he has left behind
I start to cry without knowing

Day after day as I live my life
I get teary after hearing his name
I can't hold it in (can't hold it in)
I can't laugh like this
I try calling his name again
