

Faithful In Misfortune "Overcome The Storm"

Visit "Overcome The Storm" on MotoLyrics.com

Don't let your heart sink in a quicksand!
Defend it from deadening ashes!
Walk on your feet
Whole this long path

And you should keep your faith inside
Break the walls down and fight
Just look in your heart and you will see exactly where to go

Overcome the storm
Keep your striving soul inside
And we will cross the oceans!

Words won't work like engine
Without the key
Stand up and find your key

Don't fall in traps, run and don't collapse

Don't let the weakness embrace you
With your key just break it off and go!

Stay still, and you never gonna fall if you still believe in your dream
Cause this is your chance, to make your dreams come true
Stay still, and you never gonna fall if you still believe in
your dream
Cause this is the last time to make your dreams come true!

You will pluck victory laurels
For every crossed prickles in your quest

And you should keep your faith inside
Break the walls down and fight
Just look in your heart and you will see exactly where to

Overcome the storm
Keep your striving soul inside

And we will cross the oceans!

Don't let your heart sink in a quicksand!
