English translation...

That car door...
Has closed the crack between us
With a thump sound that broke off any chances of turning back

Love, can never be broken
I'm leaving it to both of you Perhaps with a hurtful ending, this love can touch everyone

The person who tolerates is actually not an idiot
But rather being cruel to himself
Since this love cannot be heated
I'll give my blessing to your next person

You're a good person, also a bad person
Being honest to me only to run towards him
Unable to let it be, so I'm letting go
I'm still able to bear this pain

I'm a good person, also a bad person
With a ruthless breakup, you'd perhaps have an excuse to turn back
I'd rather not leaving any trace of love
Also could not bear to look at the one I love as a stranger

The person who tolerates is actually not an idiot
But rather being cruel to himself
Since this love cannot be heated
I'll give my blessing to your next person

You're a good person, also a bad person
Being honest to me only to run towards him
Unable to let it be, so I'm letting go
I'm still able to bear this pain

I'm a good person, also a bad person
With a ruthless breakup, you'd perhaps have an excuse
to turn back
I'd rather not leaving any trace of love
Also could not bear to look at the one I love as a stranger

There can never be three people

There's always someone who has to sacrifice
Then, let him walk with you till the end

You're a good person, also a bad person
Being honest to me only to run towards him
Unable to let it be, so I'm letting go
I'm still able to bear this pain

I'm a good person, also a bad person
With a ruthless breakup, you'd perhaps have an excuse
to turn back
I'd rather not leaving any trace of love
Also could not bear to look at the one I love as a stranger

I'd rather not leaving any trace of love
Also could not bear to look at the one I love as a stranger.
