There's no way I'm gonna quit now
The sky's the limit so I'll reach up
Yo, it's fearless, listen up.

Look at those way back but now I'm at the same wrap
Some said I was... and I would not flow in the game
But now it's payed back it's been a lot since then
It was now with a sheet and a pen
So I kept on doing on what I do best
I'm the one that took myself from the mess.
Good things come to the ones that wait
Bad things come to the ones that hate.
If you wanna go far be strong have faith
Be patient never rush fate
I'm so real I could never be fake
It's my job I could never be late.
I'll keep writing the rhyme until I get a break
And if I get a number one that would be great

All I need is time (yeah all I need is time)
But I just don't wanna wait
Don't wanna cross this line (don't wanna cross this line)
But I don't wanna leave it too late (uh)
And when I'm falling hard
I go back to the start (to the start)
All that I need is time (time)
I know it's never too late, not too late.

There's no way I'm gonna quit now
Cause I know that it's (not too late)

Get straight keep at hard it's (not too late)
The sky's the limit so I'll reach up
You got time so it's (not too late)
You can be who you wanna be now

See me I aim for the top
I ain't tryin to stop there cause I came from the drop
Yeah I'm tryin to go far and escape from the flop
Buy onto ya house well away from the blocks (far)
In the ends we were chased by the cops
But I chose music and it changed me a lot

I was kinda suky then but I pulled up my socks
This is my time now you ain't makin' me stop
So whatever you do believe you'll achieve it,
Don't stop now you got time to receive it
And even tho mum's gone
And she weren't there for the times she was needed
I ain't gonna leave it got my head facing them bright lights
I hope she's got and sees I'm in the limelight
And I'm in a right mind (shots) Stayin' out late
Makin sure them hits start Stickin' in pipeline
Whooo

All I need is time (yeh all I need is time)
But I just don't wanna wait
Don't wanna cross this line (don't wanna cross this line)
But I can't leave it too late (uh)
And when I'm falling hard
I go back to the start (to the start)
All that I need is time (time)
I know it's never too late, not too late.

There's no way I'm gonna quit now
Cause I know that it's (not too late)

Get straight keep at hard it's (not too late)
The sky's the limit so I'll reach up
You got time so it's (not too late)
You can be who you wanna be now

(Uh) don't stop till you make it
When you see a chance then take it
Don't fret with your talent save it

All that I need is time (all I need is time)
But I just don't wanna wait
Don't wanna cross this line (don't wanna cross this line)
But I can't leave it to fate
And when I'm falling hard I go back to the start (to the start)
All that I need is time (time)
I know it's never too late
Oh, it's not too late)

There's no way I'm gonna quit now
Cause I know that it's (not too late)

Get straight keep at hard it's (not too late)
The sky's the limit so I'll reach up
You got time so it's (not too late)
You can be who you wanna be now
