Remember yesterday?
Driving down the M4
The sun lit up your face

Playing all the tunes
Feeling like a child again
The pain has been erased

I feel much better anyhow
Until I see that black cloud

I got a hole in my head
And it's making me sad
Got a hole in my head and the world keeps looking in
Got a hole in my head
And it's making me sad
Got a hole and the world keeps crashing in

Stop looking in

Hide it all away
Keeping your heart inside a box
That no one else can take

Smile it all the way
Holding back a thousand lies
But that was yesterday

I love it when she comes around
Until I see that black cloud

I got a hole in my head
And it's making me sad
Got a hole in my head and the world keeps looking in
Got a hole in my head
And it's making me sad
Got a hole and the world keeps crashing in
Got a hole in my head
Got this song in my head

Waiting for the sun to come around

Waiting for the sun to come around

Take another smoke
I though you said you'd give up?
And does your mother know?

Take another rest
Holding out my hand again
I hope that we're still friends

I got a, I got a, I got a, I got a...

I got a hole in my head
And it's making me sad
Got a hole in my head and the world keeps looking in
Got a hole in my head
And it's making me sad
Got a hole and the world keeps crashing in
I got a hole in my head
Got a hole in my head and the world keeps looking in
