It's been a long night
The screaming was so loud
It seems all we do is fight
Can't remember what about

I don't want this anymore
I've never felt like this before
And I'm starting to believe
Maybe we should leave
We should leave

And say goodbye to this life we're leading
Every word leaves our hearts bleeding
And wounded on the ground
Our lives turned upside down

And say goodbye to blaming each other
We need to let our hearts recover
Move selfish out the door
Welcome love a little more
So let's make up tonight and say goodbye

Gotta find a way
Let's learn to love and trust
Move on to better days
With what God's planned for us

So let's hit our knees and pray
There is no other way
Now we're starting to believe
Maybe we should leave
We should leave
So baby hold my hand
Let's get out while we can
