You're not just someone that I
Think about from time to time
Girl you're on my mind
A lot non-stop
You're not just a picture on my wall
Not just someone that I call
Right before I fall asleep baby

CHORUS

You are the song that's playing in my head
The best book I've ever read
And all the passion that exists in every kiss
You are the little whisper in my ear
That says the things I love to hear
It's obvious who's in my heart
You are

You're more than just someone I see
When I need some company
I want you with me
A lot non-stop
You're more than words could ever say
More than a poet could convey
But I'll try anyway just so you'll know
