(Clean Vocals)

I can see straight through your eyes

(Screams)

Tell me what have you become

(Clean Vocals)

I won't die in your arms tonight

(Screams)

Won't die, tonight

(Clean Vocals)

I can see through your disguise

(Screams)

You can not hide from who you are

(Clean Vocals)

And you'll leave me, it's no surprise

(Screams)

Goodbye, goodnight

(Clean Vocals)

All I knew and all that I believed was left to be

A broken home, an empty frame I kept

Was all you meant to me

(Screams)

Did you think this was all just a joke?

Turning away from the words that you spoke

(Clean Vocals)

I can see straight through your eyes

(Screams)

Tell me what have you become

(Clean Vocals)

I won't die in your arms tonight...

(Screams)

Won't die, tonight

(Clean Vocals)

I can see through your disguise

(Screams)

You can not hide from who you are

(Clean Vocals)

And you'll leave me, it's no surprise

(Screams)

Goodbye, goodnight

(Clean Vocals)

Keep quiet for a second

Let your eyes do the talking

With lips sewn shut

(Screams)

Did you think this was all just a joke?

Turning away from the words that you spoke

(Screams)...

You've let what cares you have left

Stray from you, stray from you

This path led straight from your lies

You're changing, you're changing

I just don't know what's ahead
I'm flailing, I'm flailing
Tonight I cannot save us
I'm shameless, I'm shameless

Am I the only one who will fight for what I love

(Clean Vocals)
I can see straight through your eyes

(Screams)

Tell me what have you become

(Clean Vocals)
I won't die in your arms tonight

(Screams)

Won't die, tonight

(Clean Vocals)
I can see through your disguise

(Screams)

You can not hide from who you are

(Clean Vocals)
And you'll leave me, it's no surprise

(Screams)

Goodbye, goodnight

(Screams)

Burn this to the ground

The ground

The ground

The ground
