You were always the flame
That would ignite my spark
It's true that things will always look so different in the dark
As we're walking through the park
I hear them singing
I hope they're singing our song
Hope they're singing our song

And when the lights go out
Will you tell them all your reasons for doubt
Have faith in me, have faith in something
Don't disbelieve
Our time is now
I have to say this is my one way out

There's no more room for arguments
So either stay or go
There's no way you can change me
It's the only way I know

As we listen to the radio
I hear them singing
Hope they're singing our song
Hope they're singing along

And when the lights go out
Will you tell them all your reasons for doubt
Have faith in me, have faith in something
Don't disbelieve
Our time is now
I have to say this is my one way out

My one way out, my one way out
