8 O'clock pull up in my car
Thought maybe you'd want to get some coffee
Later on go back to my house
Settle on the couch and watch Forrest Gump
It's times like these we should get drunk
Cause are youth goes by so fast
To keep the faith in someone who's hurt you
I can't wait for you to come to me
FALLING!
And im falling fast for you
The pull in your heart is dwelling
And it's tearing me in two
It's times like these we should get drunk
Cause are youth goes by so fast
To keep the faith in someone who's hurt you
I can't wait for you to come to me
You're a part of me
