Before i met you
I never had a clue
About
What i was missing
Then i found the truth
In the way you're kissing me

It's been so long
Since we've kissed
I never knew that love
Could feel quite like this
And our lips meet
Touch the skies
Hold you closely
Close my eyes

Love is building
Bodies close
Passion risisng
Forgot clothes
In this moment
We're both here
But i close my eyes

It's been so long
Since we've kissed
I never knew that love could
Feel quite like this
And our lips meet
Touch the skies
Hold you closely
Close my eyes

And i'd give my world for you
To have you feel the same
Way i do
Spend my life
Right here with you
I wanna be the world for you
The world for you
