Love never dies,i can be your knight in shining armour but for now you can call me uh Fred-day!

i can be your prince, girl if you just take the chance for me
'i wont let you down baby i wont let you go hold my hand take the chance and let our feelings
grow'
if i had one wish, id wish that you would take the chance with me
take the chance baby come and take the chance with
me x 2

ive got feeling we gone stand up tall we may reach a hieght thatll cause a fright but i will not let you fall no i will not let you crawl, but ima make you touch the sky flap yo wings and here we go got the birds saying damn thats high il try to make you swing your heart my way ,with a single breathe il try to make you bling shine so bright no darkness left ive never cared for someone oh so much never before try and stop me but you wont im in this race for gold.
and you should know ill go and ill never make you feel so low again and we can start this off in slow motion right before you drink my love potion the ocean is blue and baby so is my heart theres one thing you got to do take the chance and press restart

i will be your prince, girl if you just take the chance for
me

knock knock, who is there, its fred-day let me in open up the door to your heart and let me rob what is within steal your love your trust then lock it up throw away the key keep you in my arms forever when i say forever what i mean is eternity
i see me and you to, on our way into something great and i know your affraid that you gonna get hurt but its ok cuz i know first aid l.o.v.e
you dont understand what you mean to me like an oreo and your the cream and without you girl i aint nothin but i still feel something when i look into those eyes and i know you feel it to theres no need to be disguised and my heart keeps jumping everytime that your heart cries dont be scared of my lovin ill be the hero in your skies

me
i had just one wish, i wish that you would take the
chance with me
me x 2
