Jacob & Bella talking/ Eclipse scene ill go to sleep tonight it is her that i dream everytime i close my eyes it is her that i see it is her that i need yes its her that i love shes my only fantasy with a wink from above she done shot me through the heart with her cupid hating shotgun she done torn me apart like a freddy kruger rerun she was lost from the start, yet i cannot find the reason my wounds still are bleedin my heart needs some healin she changes with the seasons shes gone with the wind comes and goes like a prayer leaves the guilt like a sin she lit the fire thats within forever will this fire stay because my hearts left in dark cuz shes the one that got away shes the one that got away and now my heart is left to die yet still i search everyday because her love keeps me alive so everynight my god i pray that my compass will steer me right down the path of memory lane where she was always by my side because she was always by my side but now all thats there is air a mental image of her smile and smile thats no longer there put in jail cuz she stole the heart that belonged to fred-

day
and now he roams this earth alone
cuz shes the one that got away i have hope & faith that this end is not our fate that our times never to late that one day well celebrate that i will not anticipate on the wait of my heartbreak on the wait of my heart ache on these thoughts for my hearts sake instead i shall meditate on the thought of your return the thought that youll maintain this fire that so freely burns still awaiting its desire is the reason that it yurns and that LOVE NEVER DIES is the lesson that its learnt yet this lesson it still hurts and the one i blame is i because my actions are the cause for the tears in your eyes

the fear and the lies forever will the scars stay

cuz shes the one that got away
cuz shes the one that got away ill go to sleep tonight lay alone affraid requiem for a dream
cuz shes the one that got away
