it was just a daze
cuz she shined just like a star
she put me in a faze
shes the reason my heart is at war shes something so beautiful,magical,hysterical, unthinkable

something that ive never seen before shes something so incredible,mystical somethin unpredictable
but i know just what you are
she is unbelievable (believe it bro)
unbelievable (believe it bro)
unbelievable (believe it bro)
she is unbelievable (believe it bro)
then i realised love never dies.

she just come and goes, is she really there? she hum one single note the sweetest song you'd ever hear, she just comes and goes but im always here i will never leave through the rain and the pain cuz shes the whip that keep this lion tame and i do not think wed ever be the same shes gone her way the battles begun i can barely get enough breath to say that shes the wind that fill up my lungs everynight i got to bed i lay alone awake cuz shes the springs that got me sprung she dropped my heart now my heart it break but her loves the glue that me the pieces one and one day ill show her yea one day we will fly shes the commander of this war that i am fighting in side and one day shell love me yes one day shell smile but i wont give up no i wont because love never dies

something that ive never seen before
she is unbelievable (believe it bro)

she is unbelievable (believe it bro)
unbelievable (believe it bro)
then i realised love never dies.

now tell me am i loosing her and has she moved on is there nothing i can do to make her love come undone make her love write a song , across my heart on its page and write about how love belongs in her life in every way with all my might i choose to stay hold on tight and pray for her all the things that i would say to bring a smile with my words and everyday i would tell her just how special she is make her understand that im the man that she should be with and one day shell come back yea one day shell love shes the commander of my war and with my life this girl i trust and one day shell be there yes one day shell try

but i wont give up no i wont because love never dies

stand your ground soldier face the front and stand up straight your fighting in this war and your fighting son for something great something you cant imagine something you see in dreams
so keep you faith strong close your eyes and leave reality
and set your emotions free, let this girl come steer your train on the tracks of your heart n through the tunnel of your brain yes the feeling is insane enter the journeys private plane

step on board hold your heart n let angels fly you away stand up baby wont you stand up, because my eyes dont believe what they see so baby stand up can you stand up because the sight of you sets me free.

sets me free
