We never blame
We never come
To insult them
Cos there's no end

They always blame
Cos not the same
And never same
Untill the end

Keep wake up, we never rest
Don't close ur eyes, were never sleep
We're not a week, and never pray
Because they keep to critict

You know what u want
You know how to get
Stop wasting your life
And fight with yourself

I don't care there's a hell
I'll keep standing in my line
I don't care there's an heaven
No regret with all my faith

"I'll keep standing in my line"
