

Needless To Say "Carry Through"

Visit "Carry Through" on MotoLyrics.com time is what I asked for but the days flew by tired of waiting for you to realize I wanna feel but the pulse has died

tired of waiting for you to realize I'll always remember, well I promise I will but I've let go, let go of you

if I could carry though, I would carry you but time is spent and I can't make it through this is not a goodbye, this is just another day with apologies, you cannot be saved I wanna feel but the pulse has died

tired of waiting for you to realize
but I've let go, let go of you

but time is spent and I can't make it through and even though, we've seen its day I wish you well after all that's been shed

if I could carry though, I would carry you
but time is spent and I can't make it through I've left behind, the will for you time is spent and I can't make it through
