Waking up in the stillness I can
Hear You calling, feel You cover me
Breaking down my soul
I've already been there, I've already been there
Falling down on my knees, I cry out
Won't You find me? Won't You cover me?
Tearing up my soul
I've already been there, I've already been there

I've lost my self
I'm falling inside You, I'm falling into
I need Your grace
I'm crashing before You, I'm falling into... You

Stepping down from my throne of pride down
Desperate for You, desperate for Your touch
Drying up my soul
I've already been there, I've already been there
