Oh I've got to say you make Solomon's ashes
Dance from the grave with your beauty and grace
Oh I've got to say I am constantly shaking
Like waves from the sea I am moved by your faith
Oh I've got to say

Don't take for granted what you got honey, Rock honey
You are the heiress to my throne
Strong enough to be a king's lady, please baby
Don't leave me standing here alone

Oh I've got to say I am constantly shaking
Like waves from the sea I am moved by your faith
Oh I've got to say you make Solomon's ashes
Dance from the grave with your beauty and grace
Oh I've got to say

Oh I cant stop but I can pay for it, Pray for it
I unaware of what I know
You're like the secret never told darling, go darling
You shake the ground I'm standing on

Oh I've got to say I am constantly shaking
Like waves from the sea I am moved by your faith
Oh I've got to say you make Solomon's ashes
Dance from the grave with your beauty and grace
Oh I've got to say
