I claim my life for my own
And break the artificial chains that bind me
I shall throw off this yoke
That binds and consumes my spirit
I will not be a slave
To create their wealth with my blood and tears
I do not respect murderers
That kill in the name of oppression and greed
I will work to end all tyranny
And will help others at all cost to myself
I will not be alone
We will all accomplish this in life
We will all be free
No longer bowing as servants
We will all live
We will all finally be alive
