Brave as I am
I don't think anyone should be alone
I'll do what I can
To answer anything that I am thrown
The porcelin bone
The smoldering burn
The ignorance
And I should have known
It's too much, expecting nothing in return

So leave the damage to me
Leave it in my hands
I will find a way
To break it down
Cause I know who I have to be
And I can barely stand
But I will find a way

I will find a way

The harder they fall
The deeper the lines along your face
And cradle and all
I'm losing something I cannot replace
The only way out (the part of me that I don't want to know)
Is no way to go (cause I can feel you walking in the)
And walking in the shadow of doubt
The anger that I'm not supposed to show

So leave the damage to me
Leave it in my hands
I will find a way
To break it down
Cause I know who I have to be
And I can barely stand
But I will find a way
A way around

So leave the damage...
(Leave the damage at the door
The only thing you came here for

Cause I don't need you hanging round
To watch me while I'm breaking down
The lengthy stares and covered eyes
The carefree world you criticize
And my own lies, but I will find a...)

A way, I will find a way
I will find a way
Brave as I am
I will find a way...
