Sunshiny Day

Searching for something sweet
I live the city screams Somewhere there's an ingent to me Somebody who's made for me

Rit) So i get day's long i've got to call my brain i'm looking for my love and i can't be late nothing else and nothing else to gave i'm finally back up on filling me It's bright.. sunshiny day.. skyes are so blue.. and i'm living.... or i know there is so late, there is so love.. got to be there

I'm happy you and me
Someday my baby and me
Should be like honey to kiss
Should be the one i need Rit)...
