Autumn brought the rain
Summer made it whole again
Between the two the winters came
I felt the wind, I felt the pain

La la la la la la
Your bittersweet melody cleanses every part of me
Hold me close my dear and whisper in my ear
Sweet nothings, Sweet nothings

Red for the sunrise in your eyes
Blue for the times that I despised
Purple for the way you made me feel
Queen of your world - you made it real

Spring saw a month of tears
New thoughts, new life appeared
A confirmation of my fears
You closed the door now winter's here

La la la la la la
Your bittersweet melody cleanses every part of me
Hold me close my dear and whisper in my ear
Sweet nothings, Sweet nothings

Red for the sunrise in your eyes
Blue for the times that I despised
Purple for the way you made me feel
Queen of your world - you made it real

Your bittersweet melody cleanses every part of me
Your bittersweet melody cleanses every part of me
Your bittersweet melody cleanses every part of me
Your bittersweet melody cleanses every part of me
Sweet nothings
