No more betrayals, no more denial.
Something got to last for me too.
I'm the one who got left behind; I'm the one who got scarred and blind.
I'm losing the grip of reality.
Cuz time gives me nothing at all, set on repeat.
You'll never get satisfied, so play the same scene over again.

I need no help from above, no.
I've got directions on my own.
But when I'm lost and almost gone,
Please give me the strength to hold on.
Oh I'm lost and gone.

Worn out, and torn apart, so fucked up on the inside.
Can you hear me now?
