Exit rites, new altered states
In the arena of light we welcome your fate
Let the dead carry the dead, pyre for the flames
Embers of life in the wilderness remain

Xodus, I feel reborn
Xodus, reborn

Your memory and life
I watch it all go up in flames
Left to die again
Fear is mine

Morning comes as light
Burning out my eyes
This is the place we're suffering
As we come in from the night alive

If you are human
If you are human
This is humanity

Xodus, no place to run, meriahs impaled
Xodus, real blood, the rites of change
Xodus, now I feel reborn
Xodus, reborn

Rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise
Rise, rise, rise
