We're playing at our part of fools who do no harm
We're parted to the part that's pushing us along

We're looking for a way to stop or hit rewind
A way to say goodbye
To leave it all behind

We'll hold our hands as we crash-land into the sea
We'll ride it down into the ground
Just you and me

It's changing up its course
It's headed for the fire
Carried down in days
Until the dust is hard

With every true love's change
We measure out our time
Time to say goodbye and leave it all behind

We'll hold our hands as we crash-land into the sea
We'll ride it down into the ground
Just you and me

We'll hold our hands as we crash-land into the sea
We'll ride it down into the ground
Just you and me

We'll hold our hands as we crash-land into the sea
We'll ride it down into the ground
Just you and me
