You
Now you can go outside alone
The city awaits you there or you can carry on at home
But I know that you need it

Cold now and on your way to school alone and footsteps behind you there
But love will find you in a crowded room or follow you home

And all the fear I lost in a day love
I turned around
I turned and I saw you there
And all the fear I lost when I knew that
I'm gonna change

(You)
(You can go outside now)
(I know)

(You)
(You can go to school)
(I know)

Cars roll on their way to work
And I recall something you said about the world
And how love will find us in the end or follow us home

And all the fear I lost in a day love
I turned around
I turned and I saw you there
And all the fear I lost when I knew that
I'm gonna change
I'm gonna change
