There's a little hope in the little plans
The bells chime out today in a major key
I took a walk outside
I listen to the sound of my step headed out of here
But you pulled us back one by one

So I woke to find the space you left behind
There was a meaning there but now just favourite songs
And something you once wrote on page you left behind
"I can do anything but you blocked my way"

It's your love
Your love
It surrounds
Why now

Your love
Your love
It surrounds
A universal love

So I awoke to find some major plans of mine
The bells chime out of key and they made it sound so lonely
So I'm out of here to a time zone far away
Where I can do anything but you blocked my way

It's your love
Your love
It surrounds
Why now

Your love
Your love
It surrounds
A universal love

Oh
My love
You're running out of space

So soon my love
There's nothing here to face

Here
Here then gone
Soon
Soon then gone

Here
Here then gone
So soon
Soon then gone

Here
Here then gone
Soon
Here then gone

(Oh)
(My love)
(You're running out of space)
