There is no map or chart
Or science behind the start
For the love we made was always on a deadline

The sound of where this goes is aching in my bones
And it echoes out like a symphony of the worst kind

Soon you'll be in the back of my mind
'Cause you came along but you came to soon

Ah

Ah

This ship we're sinking in is close now to an end
Do I go overboard or hang on to my dear love

And if we meet again as lovers or just friends
There was once a time and place for us

Soon you'll be in the back of my mind
'Cause you came along but you came to soon

I'll hold you deep in the back of my mind
'Cause you became my love but you came to soon

Sooner or later I'll come back for you
Sooner or later I'll come back for you

You came along but you came to soon
You became my love but you came to soon

You came along but you came to soon
You became my love but you came to soon
