I thought that we had fallen in love
But somehow I felt the nails in my heart
So deep that I couldn't even scream
So deep that I couldn't even breathe

It was all the things you said to me
Every lie you made me believe

Days when I cared, days when I lied
Days when I woke and felt
Those 1000 nails in my heart

Sometimes it's easier to give up than cry
And keep on living in those lies

It was all those things you said to me
Every lie you made me believe

Days when I cared, days when I lied
Days when I woke and felt
Those 1000 nails

Days when I cared, days when I cried
Days when I woke and felt
Those 1000 nails in my heart

Days when I cared, days when I lied
Days when I woke and felt
Those 1000 nails

Days when I cared, days when I lied
Days when I woke and felt
Those 1000 nails

Days when I cared, days when I lied
Days when I woke and felt
Those 1000 nails

Days when I cared, days when I fly
Days when I woke and felt
