Another wasted moment
realising we're not real.
Can you hear the angels calling when night is young and silence comes?
you touch my face and I break down.

Dreaming on, tonight we're safe and free under the wings in the safest place I close my eyes for a while and you are there, we fly behind the stars where the distance ends...

Tonight...I'm sleeping with eyes wide open, you're my eyes when I am not there, these everlasting angels calling, it can't be real, this must be a dream,

you touch my face, you set me free...

When night is young and silence comes,
you touch my face and I break down, this can't be real, this must be a dream, you touch my face, you set me free...
