I was holding her forever
Through the tears we smiled together
And commitment cost me more than I could pay

This blaze of despair is all that I can feel
When love that was meant for us, will be as dead as we
No need to approve, don't put the blame on me
When all that was meant for us, will be as dead as we

She was offering for adventure
Rusty diamonds of secret treasure
She took me deeper into the dark than I could go

This blaze of despair is all that I can feel
When love that was meant for us, will be as dead as we
No need to approve, don't put the blame on me
When all that was meant for us, will be as dead as we

Every shadow on her way, will remind of better days

This blaze of despair is all that I can feel
When love that was meant for us, will be as dead as we
No need to approve, don't put the blame on me
When all that was meant for us, will be as dead as we

No need to approve, don't put the blame on me
When all that was meant for us, will be as dead as we
