No idea in this world
My head is empty if I don't mind to be
The time has come, the countdown has started I've got to go only God knows where Easy come, easy go
With no destination
No one knows

The world is too small for me
I don't belong in here
I wanna say goodbye to myself for the last time
I belong somewhere else, I know it's time to call my friend
I open my eyes and I see dream flowers

Your eyes
I can't forget how
Your face reminds me
About the feels I feel
'Cause without saying everything is my fault
Until the final destination
I'll let you know

The world is too small for me
I don't belong in here
I wanna say goodbye to myself for the last time
friend
I open my eyes and I see dream flowers

Dream flowers in my head
Dream flowers everywhere
And I know, I know, I know, I know

The world is too small for me
I don't belong in here
I wanna say goodbye to myself for the last time
I belong somewhere else, I know it's time to call my
friend
I open my eyes and I see dream flowers
