

Negative "Reflections"

I wasn't solid enough to be Things you rather wanted to see in me Should I forget myself to get over you all I can do is pretend and lie to myself over and over again

Ghost of you still breathing it won't leave me alone
it keeps on teasing Reflections of eternity are dark as hell now I can see
Of that I'm glad my heart and soul are still mine
I couldn't stop believing in fantasies you destroyed then forgot, now I rebuilt This promised land made by sand of an hour glass misplaced
It's broken, it has disappeared and so have you
