Remains of sympathy that's kind of what you left me with our divided destinies nailed to be lost Beauty marks of history easily will repeat itself I have nothing to prove to you this time I'll take and make my move

There's no "you're the one" only hollow heart of mine sealed with damage done choice was yours so don't be a child

Lies accusations
I won't crawl I'll take your pride otherwise you will proudly stay above everything In case love is dead can't let myself go to waste you wanna taste my revenge this time I'll turn my back on you

Hey you! look what you have done to me all my feelings turn to hate All your sickness insanity makes me a mess so I won't wait...

Stop messin' around... Stop fuckin' around...
