Rain washing our faces but I don't care.
Somewhere in those places we're never getting there
I can't live in this pain it's never going away
But I'll be waiting all my life for the day
So far away but still so close
Behind us behind us

Hold me
Kiss me
Love me
Don't ever leave me
Now I see those places but I still care
I see two faces when I look at myself
So far away but still so close
Behind us behind us
Hold me kiss me
Love me. Don't ever leave me
When you hold me
Can you kiss me?
First you love me
Don't ever leave me

All the time I'd thought I'd been given
Feels so good to be true I've been dreaming
All the time I thought but it went so wrong
Behind us behind us behind us

Hold me
Kiss me
Love me
Don't ever leave me
When you hold me
Can you kiss me?
First you love me
Then you leave me!

Rain washing our faces but I don't care.
Somewhere in those places we're never getting there
I can't live in this pain it's never going away
But I'll be waiting all my life for the day
And I'm still waiting all my life for the day
