We Know What's Going On
By Jackie Jackson

Have you heard the news
The choice is up to you
It's time for us to come together now

What are you waiting for?
We can't take no more
We got to chase the dream

We can make that change
I know you feel the same
Call all your friends and shout it out

We're going to take the lead
We're going to make history
We're not goin' hesitate
We're going to celebrate

Everybody
See, you know what's going on
But together, we're too strong
And the sun is going to shine
If we open up your eyes (yeah, yeah)

Gotta listen to your heart
We can make a brand new start
Cause today, we're going to fly
Even higher than the sky (yeah, yeah)

Cause we know what's going on
Now we understand
Let's go hand in hand
I know we can build a brand new day

What are you waiting for?
We can't take no more
We're going to chase the dream

To build on your own
But you're not alone

Together, let's unite
And fight away

We're going to take the lead
We're going to make history
We're not goin' hesitate
We're going to celebrate

Everybody
See, you know what's going on
But together, we're too strong
And the sun is going to shine
If we open up your eyes (yeah, yeah)
Gotta listen to your heart
We can make a brand new start
Cause today, we're going to fly
Even higher than the sky (yeah, yeah)
Cause we know what's going on

Oh!
Everybody
Everybody
Everybody
Have you heard the news
Everybody
Everybody
Everybody
Have you hear the news

Everybody
