Oh my god. I can't believe this is happening to me
My Parents warned me but I didn't take them seriously
Those kids are my only friends that I have
Now I see them once a month
I didn't think it would be this bad

Well time passes by
And friends fade away
I guess that's just a fact of life
And mines never gonna be the same

Oh my god. Everything is falling apart
My band split up. I should of know this from the start
I guess I just didn't want to believe
That something this bad would happen to me.

Well time passes by
And friends fade away
I guess that's just a fact of life
And mines never gonna be the same

Well time passes by
And friends fade away
I guess that's just a fact of life
And mines never be the same
