I've got dreams I'm chasing
Yeah some would say my life I'm wasting
But all the right and wrong roads I've takin
Got me to where I am and made me my own man

Chorus

You can knock me down but I'll get back up
At the end of the day I'm still my father's son
Tough as nails heart of gold
Strong as steel hard to hold
And I'm never gonna change

I was born that way
I don't fight for no reason
But I'd stand for what I believe in
So you can take it or leave it
I'm just being me and that's all I'll ever be

Chorus
