"Four Walls"

Waking up in a hurricane
I see my life in a different way
And realize I'm running outta time
Look out my window down the same old street
Monday morning starring back at me
This town's gonna bury me alive

Chorus

I gotta break these four walls down
Honey I'm falling out of line
You gotta take, take it all in stride
Honey I'm falling out of line
Heavy load it's a heavy weight
Should I stay or leave this place
There's a storm churning in my mind
Rolling over lately I can't sleep
Chasing after something I can't see
I gotta a fire burning deep inside

Chorus

I'm gonna fall outta line

Nothing left but the shoes on my feet
And I'm gonna wear them out

Chorus
