I look at you in this pale moonlight
I can;t help but say how you look tonight
Your eyes, your hair, your lips, your smile
One look at you and it drive me wild People wait a lifetime for a love like this And your livin' proof that Heaven on Earth exists

There's not a soul in this world that could tear me away
from you
You always make me smile, whenever I'm feelin' blue
All my plans, all my dreams have come true
Because of you
There's not a thing is this world that could tear me
away form you

I have to thank God everyday
For blessings that he sent my way
A brown eyed girl and a clear blue sky
For a perfect world when I open my eyes Cause I could spend a lifetime wrapped up in your arms
And it feels like home, ohh.. it feels like home

There's not a soul in this world that could tear me away
from you
You always make me smile, whenever I'm feelin' blue
All my plans, all my dreams have come true
Because of you
There's not a thing is this world that could tear me
away form you

There's not a soul in this world that could tear me away
from you
You always make me smile, whenever I'm feelin' blue
All my plans, all my dreams have come true
Because of you
There's not a thing is this world that could tear me
away form you.

There's not a thing is this world that could tear me
away from you.
