With the world at my feet,
I'll sink to my knees,
Ever so quietly.

So much choices to be made,
And the paths that we can take,
I'm still full of these fears.

I just don't know what to do,
I'm not deciding over you,
Just please listen to me speak.

No matter what I choose,
It's not an excuse,
I just find it hard to think.

So feel the wind on your face
It's cold and now you see
You should have helped me.

So feel the wind on your face
It's cold and now you feel
You could have helped me

With the world at my feet,
I'll sink to my knees,
And now you'll see.

All those choices I have made,
The paths I chose to take,
I've never felt so free.

Now I know what to do,
I have found something new,
You heard me speak.

I feel there's nothing to lose,
Now I've found the truth,
I've never felt so deep...

(Chorus)

We're Young and in love,
Heart attacks' waiting to happen,
So come on closer
And tell me it's all in our heads.

We're young and in love,
Heart attacks' waiting to happen
So come a little closer
Tell me those three little words. (x2)
